

Quilt Block Challenge Entry Information and Guidelines

THEME – Children's Bed Quilt Block

QUILTERS' DAY OUT – MARCH 11, 2023

The Children's Bed quilt block must have a perimeter of at least 50 inches (12½" block), and no more than 82 inches (20½" block). There are three categories: Traditional, Modern, and Art. The block must be made by one person. An individual can enter up to two blocks, but they must be in different categories, and an entry form received for each block. The block must have been made within the last year.

Traditional: A repeating pattern such that multiple versions of your block make up the finished quilt.

Modern: The modern block does not rely on repeating design, and can have change in size or color of strips, can have unusual piece placement or off-center motif, and tends to not rely on a grid. Can focus on bold, modern fabrics instead of the traditional classic designs. The use of batiks will be considered modern.

Art: An original exploration of a concept or idea (Children's Bed Quilt Block), rather than a handing down of a pattern. It experiments with textile manipulation: color, texture, and/or a diversity of mixed media. It often pushes the quilt world boundaries.

Challenge Committee has the right to change the category if deemed necessary.
